URBAN PEAK®

Premium gear built for everyday life. From the trail to the office. From the summit to the sidewalk. This premier line of performance gear is built for those who demand more from everyday essentials.

The same vacuum-insulated bottle that keeps water ice-cold on a 25-mile hike, can hold your coffee hot through the daily grind. The same rugged cooler that survives white water rafting and tailgates can keep lunch fresh on a Saturday picnic in the park. The same trail-ready backpack can haul climbing gear one weekend and your laptop the next—without ever looking out of place.

Whether recognizing employees, welcoming new partners, or outfitting an outdoor initiative, Urban Peak® delivers thoughtful, functional, high-end gear that lasts.

Urban Peak® gives unbreakable quality for the life you live—workdays, weekends, and every adventure in between.

Built for the wild. Made for every day.
